

(no 1)

Yes I do recall Ewart, his bake-house was on the turn of the road, Gully Road going to Scoresby, He was thrown out of his cart on Burnwood Rd. & killed. Stranger never had a bakehouse in the Gully.

(no 2) Yes I do recall a man named Chasman He married the Licensee's Daughter & lived there till he had a place built.

(no 3) Thompsons big store was pulled down not burnt down.

(no 4) As far as I can recall Miss Ramsay was at Edwin L. Thompsons when he had the big store & Post Office.

(no 5) No 5 Question is correct as far as I can remember.

(no 6) The land selected by W. Hughes was Mrs Suttons Grandfather. The area which he selected, ran from Robert Lums, boundary to Phillips Thompsons Boundary, going towards Scoresby, Mrs Suttons Mother had the store at the turn of the road, but my Wife & myself were living at Scoresby opposite Stanford Park.